

Bible Discussion Guides by Level

When your group becomes interested in studying a whole book of the Bible, Q Place discussion guides fit right into the kind of discussion and discovery that you all have come to enjoy in the group. We recommend starting with Mark: Discover Jesus because the Gospel of Mark is the shortest, most concise account of Jesus' life. Use the list below to find a guide that will fit the level of experience that you have with the Bible and the timespan that your group has available. Also, check out the online Q Place resource "What Should We Study Next?" for questions that will guide your group to a great decision.
