

Group Reflections

As you think back over the last several months, choose some questions to consider and share with our group:

- What new insight did you gain in our discussions of the book or topic that we chose?
- What was the biggest risk you took in the group? What was an area of growth?
- What has this group meant to you this year? How have you experienced love and/or grace in our group?
- When were you most surprised by yourself? By the group?
- How did the group contribute to your daily life, if at all?
- What worked well for you? What would you like to see change in our group?
- What would you like to study or learn more about?
- Can you think of someone to invite into our group when it starts up again?
- Would you consider helping to start another group?
